现场图像	 The first photograph shows the exterior of the factory entrance. A white metal gate is partially open, leading to a paved area. In the background, there is a multi-story concrete building with several windows. A sign with yellow Chinese characters is visible on a wall in front of the building. The second photograph shows an interior view of a factory. A person wearing a grey patterned jacket and a black cap is seen from behind, holding a handheld electronic device. Another person's hand, wearing a light green sleeve, is also visible, holding the device. The background shows industrial machinery and a large open bay door.
